Principal's Welcome

As-salamu alaykum (peace be with you)

Dear Parents,

Now that we are coming to December, we are starting our annual festive gift programme. This year, Miss Barrett has organised 3 initiatives to help to care and support others who are less fortunate than ourselves.

One initiative will be starting food bank donations of non-perishable items during the coming weeks. We will also have a shoebox appeal, where the children take a shoe box and fill it with gifts and essential items for less fortunate children and adults, those without money, without families or ill. Our third initiative is raising money for St Joseph's Hospice, to help makes people's lives that little bit happier during their end of life care.

Please look out for the letter that will be sent out with the children today and next week.

Sports News

This week we took part in our very first Panathlon tournament, securing a very respectable 7th position. There were lots of activities that our children competed in, including curling, penalty shoot-out, darts and more! Well done to Youcef for acquiring the most points!

This week also marked the first of Hackney's cross-country races in a series of four. There was a strong field of 150+ of Hackney's finest runners in both the girl's and boy's field. Our highest-placed boy was Mohsin who finished 41st. Our highest-placed girl was Maryam D who finished 29th.

Next week will be the second of Hackney's Cross-country race, with the children keen to improve on their showing from last week. We also have a Dodgeball tournament to look forward to.

at Home

The popular TV show, 'I'm A Celebrity, Get Me Out of Here' will no longer feature challenges including eating live bugs in the Bushtucker Trials for the first time in the show's history, following campaigns against animal cruelty. Explaining their decision, the producers have said, "No live critters will be eaten in the Bushtucker Trials this year." Although live critters and animals will not be part of the eating tasks, viewers can still expect to see the contestants being covered in them as part of other trials. It comes as wildlife presenter, Chris Packham, has been campaigning for the series to end the use of animals. He's explained that he sends a letter of complaint to the programme every year.

Things to talk about at home...

- 🐸 Did you know that there are laws to protect animals? Do you think that there should be? Why?
- 🐸 Do you think it's fair that animals are used on TV programmes like I'm A Celebrity Bushtucker Trials for our entertainment? If not, what kinds of things do you think they should do instead?
- 🐸 Can you think of other types of entertainment that use animals, such as pets in films or animal or bird shows at theme parks?

Rule of Law

Just like people, animals have rights and there are laws in place to make sure they are not mistreated in any way. It's important for us to support these laws to protect animals.
