

1a. Change the sentences below so that each adverbial becomes a fronted adverbial.

A. The machine would not work once again.

B. The lion roared angrily.

A

1b. Change the sentences below so that each adverbial becomes a fronted adverbial.

A. I went on a nature walk yesterday.

B. Emma had lots of friends at school.

A

2a. Using the word bank below, write a sentence with a fronted adverbial.

the	later	fired
returned	bear	on

Remember to use the correct punctuation.

A

2b. Using the word bank below, write a sentence with a fronted adverbial.

we	supper	have
before	usually	bedtime

Remember to use the correct punctuation.

A

3a. Which fronted adverbial has been used correctly? Explain your answer.

A. Sadly we won the trophy.

B. Often, we won the trophy.

C. Last weekend, we won the trophy.

B

3b. Which fronted adverbial has been used correctly? Explain your answer.

A. Echoing loudly, the bell rang out.

B. Next week, the bell rang out.

C. Joyfully the bell rang out.

B