

Peace Poem

Your task is to create a poem about peace within religions. You can choose the style in which you create your poem. Your poem can focus on similarities, differences or draw on both similarities and differences within the religions. Your poem can look at positive impacts religions make on peace, negative impacts of religion on peace or both. When you have written your poem, write it out in your neatest handwriting and decorate it appropriately.

Peace Poem

Your task is to create a poem about peace within religions. You can choose the style in which you create your poem. Your poem can focus on similarities, differences or draw on both similarities and differences within the religions. Your poem can look at positive impacts religions make on peace, negative impacts of religion on peace or both. When you have written your poem, write it out in your neatest handwriting and decorate it appropriately.

Peace Poem

Your task is to create a poem about peace within religions. You can choose the style in which you create your poem. Your poem can focus on similarities, differences or draw on both similarities and differences within the religions. Your poem can look at positive impacts religions make on peace, negative impacts of religion on peace or both. When you have written your poem, write it out in your neatest handwriting and decorate it appropriately.

Peace Poem

Your task is to create a poem about peace within religions. You can choose the style in which you create your poem. Your poem can focus on similarities, differences or draw on both similarities and differences within the religions. Your poem can look at positive impacts religions make on peace, negative impacts of religion on peace or both. When you have written your poem, write it out in your neatest handwriting and decorate it appropriately.