

30 GOOD DEEDS A DAY

Ramadan 2020

Introduction

- Ramadan is upon us! During this month of fasting, charity and worship we should strive to help others as much as possible. Good deeds are a way of showing our love to Allah (SWA) and thanking Him for everything He has given us. In the Holy Qur'an, Allah (SWA) tells us directly of the blessings of good deeds:
- 'Allah has promised those who believe and do righteous deeds [that] for them there is forgiveness and great reward.' (Qur'an, 5:9)

Instruction

Your task is to perform a good deed and send us a photo or a picture of you doing it. Please include a short caption explaining what's happening in the photo or picture.

Alternatively, you can write a poem about it.

You can record it on PowerPoint or on a Word document. If that's not possible, you can record it in a diary or a scrap book.

See the next slide for some examples.

Examples

See suggestions of possible good deeds you could perform.

Deed 1

Partnering up with my brother to clear up after our delicious iftar meal. My brother wiped down the surfaces until they were spotless. In the meantime, I collected all the used dishes and cutlery and helped with the washing up. This cooperative partnership helped other members of the household to get on with their other tasks.

Deed 2

Daily recitation of the glorious Quran. I am really working hard on my tajwid.
