

Good Deeds

Introduction

Showing charity to others is a very important part of being a Muslim. It is the third pillar of Islam called Zakat.

Charity towards others doesn't just mean giving money to those less fortunate than you.

It can also be shown by doing good deeds for other people too.

Remember: a good deed lightens a dark world.

Good Deed Diary

A diary is a book in which you write down your personal thoughts.

It is normally dated, so you can write about what happened during that particular day.

Diaries are usually written in the past tense at the end of a day. They are very personal and aren't often shared with anyone.

For your Ramadan Good Deed Diary, you should record the good deeds you have done that have shown charity to others.
