

During this frightening time we are all being told, daily, to stay home, so we can keep ourselves and others safe, and protect our NHS. But, nurses, care workers and other essential workers have to go to work to keep everything going and save lives.

Write a letter to a key worker to show them your appreciation of all their hard as they respond to the Coronavirus crisis.