

Ramadhan Mubarak!

In Islam, acts of kindness are regarded as a form of charity (Bukhari, Muslim). During Ramadhan, the Prophet (S.A.W) would be EVEN MORE generous in giving charity (Bukhari). How many different ways can we earn reward? Let's try to do at least one act of kindness everyday!

Act of Kindness Make a special Dua for anyone who you know is sick	Act of Kindness Video call a friend or family, see how they are	Act of Kindness Let's try not to get annoyed or frustrated today	Act of Kindness Set the table/eating area for Iftaar today	Act of Kindness Put some money in your charity box to give to someone who needs it	Act of Kindness SMILE!

Act of Kindness Recite Surah Kafiroon 4x, you get the reward of reading the whole Quran!	Act of Kindness Do a chore in the house for the sake of Allah – don't tell anyone you did it!	Act of Kindness Help to make Dinner/Iftaar today	Act of Kindness Make Wudhu but turn the water off in between – don't waste it	Act of Kindness Play nicely with your siblings today – ALL of them!	Act of Kindness Donate an Eid gift to a child in need around the world – ask your parents to help!

Cut up all the acts of kindness and fold them up, so you can't see what each one says. Put them in a box or a jar and close it. When you want to do your one Act of Kindness a day, open the jar/box, put your hand in and take one out. No peeking!

You have the whole day to get it done. Make sure its completed before you go to bed! If you don't get a chance, fold it up again and put it back in your box or jar to complete it on another day. If you complete it, well done! May Allah reward you ☺
