

Handwriting & Spelling

Look, say and write the word from the left side. Cover & write. These are the common exception words that the children should know how to spell. Maybe pick out the words they are unfamiliar with. Complete the various fun activities alongside.

Literacy

After completing the reading comprehension, continue writing Rabbits diary about the events that follow on from the story.

Numeracy

Complete arithmetic papers- one per day.

Reading

Read the story and complete the comprehension questions.

A monster surprise is linked to the literacy task.

Topic

Science- Match the words with the correct description of the different building materials.

History- What is different about hospitals now, compared to Victorian hospitals? Sort the sentences into the table.