

Task Instructions

Literacy

The Garden Party

Your task is to read through the text 'The Garden Party' by Katherine Mansfield, and answer questions based on the text. Remember to answer in full sentences.

Numeracy

Counting backwards

Use the number line to aid you to count backwards from zero using negative numbers.

Reading

Comprehension: Tour de France

Read the full text and complete the comprehension questions using full sentences. To help you write in full sentences, use the question to help you start off your answer. Highlight any information that you think may be useful and important. Check your answers by skimming and scanning the text and add any missing information.

Topic: PSHE

Product design and pitch

You are going to be an entrepreneur (businessperson), who has a brilliant idea about the new product. Your task is to design a product which will be very innovative and useful for the children. Then, you will have to pitch (try to convince the other businessmen to invest in your product). Use persuasive language to convince them.

Topic: Art

Pebble Art

Your task is to paint on a clean pebble, but before that you will have to go on a pebble hunt. The parks and gardens are great places to find pebbles. Use your imagination for this task and be as creative as you like!