

Locating mountains

Task: Using the power point, identify the different mountain ranges around the world and label them on a map. Remember to create you mountain fact card and attempt the extension task too. How many mountain names can you memorise with their location?