

Create a scene description to make the reader feel nervous, as though something is going to happen to the character. Your writing must be based on the picture below.

To be successful, you must:

1. Include at least 6 adjectives to make the reader feel nervous or worried
2. Include details of the 5Ws - Who is there? Why do they feel nervous? Where are they? When is it? What is happening?
3. Include at least 2 similes to compare two things together
4. Make sure that all capital letters and full stops are used accurately
5. Use the higher-level openers of As..., During..., Once...
6. Use the conjunctions 'and', 'because', 'when' accurately
7. Write at least a page of writing

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
